Membership in the SPSCVA is required for all authors published in its journal, Film and Philosophy, and for all presenters at SPSCVA paper sessions.

Film and Philosophy provides a unique and much-needed venue for publishing philosophical essays on film, and has sought to further serious dialogue about film as art in the philosophical community. Paper sessions hosted by the SPSCVA at each divisional
APA meeting throughout the year expand to include discussions of contemporary painting, sculpture, installations, photography, performance art, etc.
